Alison's love of history was born after reading her first adult novel at the age of fourteen. After that she took up history as a hobby. Alison had a career in the Civil Service before her first book, Britain's Royal Families, came out in 1989. She has since written fourteen other history books as well as proving herself a gifted and engaging novelist with her portrayals of Elizabeth of York in The Lady Elizabeth and Jane Grey in Innocent Traitor. She is at present working on a biography of Elizabeth of York.
